REMOVE PAPRIKA MILL AS REPARATIONS -- Munich, Hungaria, 17 Nov 50

The Vienna office of Hungaria reports that the world-famous Szeged Paprika Factory, the largest in Hungary, has been dismantled and sent to the USSR as a reparations payment. Removal of the valuable and unique installations of the factory represent an irreparable loss to Hungarian economy. The State Security Authority police were called upon to quiet the workers' demonstration protesting forcible dismantling of the factory. Large-scale arrests followed the demonstration, and tradesmen left unemployed by the removal of the paprika mill were taken to the USSR for forced labor.
